GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Concerning the speculative department of racing near that city, the San Francisco Chronicle of last Monday says:

"Never in the history of continuous racing in California have the bookmakers had such a good break as the present season. It is estimated that the ring is $125,000 ahead. This is no idle gossip, but a careful calculation obtained from men in touch with the pencilers. This is one of the seasons that a man needed little outside of a slate and a supply of chalk. Money and handicapping skill were never so much at a discount and all the bookman needed to do was to grab the coin offered him. Favorites have been beaten with a great regularity and it seems that in very close calls the decision has favored the bookmakers rather than the speculative public. Such a phenomenal streak of luck for the bookmakers cannot continue much longer. Saturday was a great day for the books, but they can hardly expect another such day during the season.

"The biggest winners at present are John Coleman, Joe Harlan and Phil Archibald. These three pencilers are fully $15,000 ahead. Coleman encountered the worst kind of luck during the last season, and he will have to win many another thousand to even up, but he has made a good start this year. Jack Atkins, who is booking for Johnny Humphreys, is $8,000 to the good. Applegate and Hoffman, of St. Louis, are both several thousands winner. Hugh Jones has already cleaned up $6,000, and several of the new books are good winners. W. Langford has made a success of the Olympic Club book and cleaned up $3,500 in one day.

"Last year the season opened up in the most disastrous style for the bookies, and many a bank roll was consumed before the season was a month old."

"Billy" Barriek, well known to Chicago race-track habitués, has been phenomenally favored by Dame Fortune during the past few months and at Benning led all the sensational plungers. In the course of a recent talk with a newspaper man he gave this account of his lucky adventures:

"After many ups and downs I borrowed $200 during the Morris Park meeting from a Canadian friend and played 'the bank.' After an all-night session I was $10,000 to the good. After an interval of a day I returned to 'the bank' and played all night, quitting $11,000 richer.

"From that time I prospered in all my speculations. I won over $16,000 at the Morris Park meeting and went to the Aqueduct track well heeled, as the boys say. There I ran Sir Guy, a colt belonging to me. I got 30, 25 and 20 to 1 against him, and won nearly $40,000 on him. It was one of the biggest killings I ever made. I beat the Aqueduct meeting good and then came to this city.

"To show you that a man when in luck can't do anything wrong, I telegraphed to a couple of friends to place several thousand dollars on Sir Guy when he was beaten here by Royal Sterling. What was the result? That night when I returned to the hotel I opened a telegram I had received just as I left the track and found that my friends were unable to place my money on Sir Guy because the poolrooms had refused to take it. That's luck, ain't it?

"During the fifteen days' racing here I have had only three losing days. The other twelve days have netted me a big profit on my investments. I have backed horses at all kinds of prices and won a big majority of them. Just how long this good fortune will continue I can't say. But I can stand it as long as old Dame Fortune is willing to throw it at me. Should my good luck desert me I suppose I will go broke again. That is the fortune of all speculators."

In relation to the refusal of the California Jockey Club to receive his entries the San Francisco Bulletin represents Mr. Corrigan as saying:

"The least said about the matter the better it will be for racing. If the California Jockey Club had not given it to the paper I would not have mentioned it. When trouble can be averted I believe in averting it. In regard to the entries, all that I have to say is that they were solicited. An agent of the Jockey Club asked me to patronize their stakes, and I told my clerk to make out a list. I think I sent over eight entries in all. I might have sent them anyhow, but I know I would not have sent them when I did if he had not solicited the entries. If there is any feeling against me at Oakland I am glad they returned the entries, for I never want to race where I am not wanted. There are plenty of places where I can go without forcing myself upon my enemies. That is all I have to say."

A late number of the London Sportsman gives the following records of the fastest performances on the English turf at distances from five furlongs up to a mile and three-quarters:

Five furlongs, Le Buff.....	0:59 3/4
Six furlongs, Serpentine.....	1:12 3/4
One mile, Harrow.....	1:25 3/4
Rowly mile (1 mile, 11 yds), Gaites More.....	1:40 3/4
One mile and a quarter, Clapham.....	2:04 3/4
One mile and three furlongs, Fatherless.....	2:19 3/4
One mile and a half, Nuneh.....	2:37 3/4
One mile and three-quarters, Florissell II.....	2:59 3/4

CALIFORNIA TURF TALK.

The following items from the San Francisco Chronicle and The Examiner of Saturday last will interest local followers of the turf:

An Australian cablegram states that the Victorian Derby was won by H. Powers' Merriwee, by Bill of Portland. Dewey, by Lochiel, finished second and Parthian third. Merriwee, who won by a length, also captured the Melbourne cup, Dewey finishing third in that event.

The judges have refused the entries of George Baldwin's Silver Tail on account of his in-and-out running. A careful study of his performances, however, will show that every race on a heavy track has been bad. His only good one was in the slop.

Daniel Hanlon, owner of Sly, was not satisfied with the way the mare ran on Friday and yesterday took her away from trainers Saunders and Carey. The Messrs. Hanlon bet $600 on Sly Friday, and E. Van Brunt had a wager of $1,400 on her.

Albert Simons came in Friday morning with a string of fourteen from Chicago. Among them are Flax Spinner, Latch Key and Florinel II. Simons is a partner of Tommy Griffin.

Silver II, the son of Salvator, who finished third to Requitul and Crescendo in the Futurity, is in training and may soon sport silk at the local track.

W. R. Larzelere has purchased Silver Tone and Afamada from P. Ryan. The consideration was not made public, but is said to be $3,000.

Canace, the bread-winner in Nick Hall's stable, is dead. She contracted fever on the way out here and died at Sacramento.

Frank McMahon has purchased the colt Croker, by Tammany, from Colonel Stotesbury at a private figure.

Take Notice will have five two-year-olds on the turf next year.

Gus Blum leaves Chicago next Saturday for San Francisco.

There are accommodations at Tanforan Park for 240 horses.

Starter Dick Dwyer is coming out here in January.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At Benning, Thursday, Dayton, who had the mount on Tentore, the 34 to 1 fancy, found his horse running too prominently on the second circuit and endeavored to make him run the wrong course by pulling him around a jump. The horse resisted gamely, and in his struggle to keep within the flags fell over the side wing fence leading to the obstacle in question. The stewards promptly ordered the indefinite suspension of the offending jockey, and will report his case to the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association.

"Virginia" Carroll supplied an exciting feature of the last day's racing at Benning. Carroll, during the interval between the second and third races, applied an offensive remark to a Washingtonian, who was scanning the Carroll prices. The stranger promptly knocked the big Virginian off the quotation chair, and a miniature Donnybrook Fair scene followed. When the police rescued Carroll the latter closed his book for the day.

Report has it that jockey Tommy Burns will soon join the ranks of the New Orleans riders. He is at present under contract to Messrs. Burns & Waterhouse, but it is understood that, by mutual agreement, he will be released. Burns has a large following among race-goers, and his return to New Orleans will be welcomed by his friends.

It was the intention of Thompson Bros. to start their good two-year-old, Sidney Lucas, in the Inaugural Handicap. They had made all arrangements to ship the colt, but through a misunderstanding the train connection at Washington was missed, much to Messrs. Thompson's chagrin.—New Orleans Picayune.

In the seventeen days of the Benning meeting eighty-eight races were run off. W. Oliver was the principal winning owner, his horses earning him in stakes and purses $3,780. Thompson Brothers, F. D. Beard, W. M. Barriek, T. J. Healy and P. J. Sullivan each secured upward of $1,000 in purses.

Dr. Rexford has bought Ducat from Ed Corrigan. The old horse is being given work at Ingleside daily and his new owner expects to have him ready for a race at the next Tanforan meeting.

Barbee & Jones have bought from John E. Madden the chestnut stallion Handels, by Hanover—Tarantella. He won the White Plains Handicap and other stakes. The price is private.

Woodard & Shanklin's sale at Lexington closed Thursday with the record of having disposed of a total of 457 horses for $88,440, an average of $193.50.

J. H. Smith has sold the useful colt Jackanapes to J. F. Davis for whom he should prove a good bread winner at New Orleans this winter.

G. W. Poole's veteran Egbert died at New Orleans a day or two ago. He was a good race-horse when sound and in his prime.

Fred Foster has presented his game old campaigner, Sullross, to Clarence Waterhouse as a recognition of several favors.

NOVEMBER AND OTHER FORM BOOKS

November books of Form Charts in paper and leather covers are on sale. They contain all the Form Charts of all tracks from November 1 to November 30, inclusive. Price, paper cover, $1; soft morocco, $1.50. The editions of both are limited. There are also morocco-covered volumes of charts from January 1 to June 30, inclusive.

AMERICAN EPSOM DERBY ENTRIES.

A considerable number of American-bred two-year-olds, the great majority of which are still in this country, are eligible to start for next year's Epsom Derby, the race of all races. Obviously most of them will remain in this country because of their failure to achieve places in the front ranks of our best two-year-olds of this year. On the other hand several raced in good form and possibly may be sent across the Atlantic. Of the list entered an eastern exchange says:

"J. E. Madden heads the list of entries with a string of seven, as follows: Colonel Roosevelt, by Falsetto—Pearl Thorn; Larzelere, by Bramble—Charity; Waring, by Masetto—The Sweeper; Dan Regan, by Spendthrift—Cinderella; Quicksand, by Quicklime—Spinette; The Chamberlain, by Lisbon—Patrimony, and David Garrick, by Hanover—Peg Woffington.

"The last two are now the property of P. Lorillard and their worth is well known. David Garrick performed fairly well at times, but he is hardly up to Derby form. The Chamberlain was much of a disappointment to Mr. Lorillard, but as he is a slashing, fine-looking colt and a full brother to the speedy Keenan, should he be sent to England he may give a good account of himself. The writer saw him work the mile distance at Sheephead Bay in the early part of the summer in 1:44, when no two-year-old was asked to go over six furlongs.

"Waring, now owned by F. T. Parker, is as fast as the wind, and can go any distance, but as he is reported to have bad ankles, it is hardly likely that he will be sent around Tattenham Corner next year.

"Colonel Roosevelt is in the hands of Robert Smith. He is of a fairish class and last season showed every liking for a distance of ground. Should Bob elect to send him abroad, with Willie Midgely, to train him, who knows what will beat Counter Tenor's handsome brother?

"Sydney Paget's eligibles, Last Cord, by Ben Strome—Last Ban; Bramble Rose, by Bramble—Miss Nailor, and an unnamed bay colt by Meddler—Spring Tide, lack a lot of having Derby form, and will doubtless be kept at home.

"J. R. Keene's entries, Doublet, by Domino—Lucy Wallace; Petrubio, by Tournament—Katharine II.; Disguise, by Domino—Bonnie Gal, and Sangerbund, by Domino—Bellfield II., will, with the exception of Disguise, be kept here. Disguise has already been sent across. He is a colt about whom little is known, but his private form is said to be of the best. He is a slashing bay, of the finest conformation and was one of the best tried yearlings at the Keene establishment. He would have been seen during the season but for the reason that he was a big colt and was growing fast, and Trainer Rowe preferred to wait on him.

"Marcus Daly's offerings for the race are St. Finnan, by Tammany—Ayrshire Rose, and Pettifogger, by Bathampton—Petticoat. St. Finnan was thought by many to be a good colt during the season, but he never ran up to his private form. Regarding Pettifogger but little is known.

"John Daly has a couple on the Derby entry list: Erwin, by His Highness—Vega, and Princeling, by His Highness—Miss Longstreet. These seem to have no chance and will probably race at home.

"Alfy Lakeland's bid for the Derby will be with Mike Strauss, a colt by Iroquois—Gypsy. Billy Lakeland has a colt by Chorister—Zodiac entered. H. T. Oxnard has a youngster by Jils Johnson—Lady Tramp on the Derby entry list. A review of the above list shows but few who have Derby form, and until they are shipped abroad it is impossible to tell.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.
